On Tuesday, the 1st of April 2014, a visit-briefing at the National Defence School was held by the General Manager of the National Defence Fund, Major General Mr. Georgios Stathias, accompanied by qualified Staff Officers in order to inform the staff of the Hellenic Army about the task and objectives of the Fund (NDF) as the responsible carrier for the management and rational utilization of the Greek Army's real property.

The lecture focused on the vision, the strategy and the overall effort of the turnaround and transformation that the NDF attempts to become a modern Management Agency and rational development of real property of the Hellenic Army General Staff and by extension at the Ministry of Defence.

{gallery}galleries/setha{/gallery}