

The modernisation and transformation of the Fund to a modern, reliable and competent Body of the Hellenic Ministry of Defence, aiming for the effective management and utilisation of the landed property at its possession, according to the founding Law in relation to its establishment and function (Law 4407/1929).